

The city of Regina

By: Elizabeth Miller

Did you know that when Canada was called the Northwest territories, Regina was the capital? Today I will tell you about Regina. The first nations university is the only university in Canada run by first nations. Regina used to be the capital of the Northwest territories, so Regina is important to Canada. I'm going to be telling you; The history of Regina, Regina's main attractions, The people of Regina, And a few fun facts about Regina.

First I'm going to tell you about the history of Regina. Founded in 1882, Regina became a city in 1903. Regina was named for queen victoria, Regina meaning Queen. When Saskatchewan was formed in 1905, Regina was named provincial capital.

Second, I am going to list Regina's main attractions. First is, The Royal Saskatchewan Museum. Second is, The Saskatchewan Science Centre. Third is the Government House. Fourth is the RCMP Heritage Centre. Fifth is the Saskatchewan Sports Hall Of Fame. Sixth is Wascana Centre. Seventh is the Legislative Building. Eighth is the Mosaic Stadium. Those are Regina's main attractions.

Now I will tell you about the people of Regina. With a population of 21 million, 226 thousand 404, Regina's population has more than doubled since world war 2 due to immigration. 9% of the population is German, 18.5% is English, 15.3% Scottish, and 10.4% is indigenous. 75.3% of the population is white. The mayor of Regina is Chad Bachynsk. Those are a few facts about the people of Regina.

Finally, I have some fun facts about Regina. The pride of the city; the Saskatchewan Rough Riders. Shops in Regina are very attractive. In 1912, a cyclone in Regina killed 28 people and cost over $5 million to Repair. Those are some fun facts about Regina.

My topic was Regina. Regina matters because it is important to Canada. My subtopics were; History, Attractions, People, and Fun facts. My project tells us that Canada and Regina are linked. Now you know a lot about Regina!